

My Life Is In Your Hands

Words & Music: Kirk Franklin
Arr.: Volker Kruschynski

Intro ca 112

S
A T
B

du dup dup du dup du du dup dup du dup du
du dup dup du dup du du dup dup du dup du
du dup dup du dup du du dup dup du dup du du du dup dup du dup du du ba du du dup dup du dup du

Verse

5

1. You don't have to wor - ry and don't you be a - fraid, joy comes in the mor -
2. When your tests and tri - als they seem to get you down, all your friends and loved

1. You don't have to wor - ry and they don't you be a - fraid, so joy comes in the mor -
2. When your tests and tri - als they seem to get you down, and all your friends and loved

1. You don't have to wor - ry and they don't you be a - fraid, joy comes in the mor -
2. When your tests and tri - als they seem to get you down, all your friends and loved

1. You don't have to wor - ry and they don't you be a - fraid, so joy comes in the mor -
2. When your tests and tri - als they seem to get you down, and all your friends and loved

Bridge

10

- ning trou - les they don't last al - ways. For there's a friend named Je - ones they are no where to be found.

- ning trou - les they don't last al - ways. For there's a friend named Je - ones are no where to be found.

- ning trou - les they don't last al - ways. For there's a friend named Je -
ones are no where to be found.

- ning trou - les they don't last al - ways. For there's a friend named ones they are no where to be found.